

Divorces can be complicated and there can be a lot on the line. It is always best to talk to a lawyer. These forms are designed to help people who cannot afford lawyer and have a really simple situation. They should not be used if you own real estate, have pensions, other valuable assets, or think you have a claim for spousal support (alimony). If any of these apply, you should make every effort to hire a lawyer. If you have not yet consulted with SEOLS, please call us at 740-773-0012. Otherwise, please call a private attorney.

Forms that must be completed by you

- Complaint - Tells the Court why you want a divorce and what you want.
- Instructions for Service - If you do not know where your spouse is living, please contact legal aid.
- UCCJEA Affidavit - This gives the Court some background information regarding your children.
- Scheduling Entry - The court will tell you when your final hearing will be held. Once you are given this date, see the instructions attached.
- Entries - The Judge and or the Magistrate will use these to issue his final ruling.

Optional Forms - All Affidavits must be signed in front of a Notary.

- Affidavit for Temporary Orders - Use this if you need the Court to Issue certain orders now, rather than waiting until the final hearing, see the form for more information.
- Affidavit of Indigency - The Court WILL charge a fee for filing the divorce. If you fill out this form the Court MAY decide to charge the fee at the end of the case rather than at the beginning. You also may be able to get the Court to order your spouse to pay these fees. There is also an entry to fill out if you want to make this request.
- Child Support Application - Use this if you do not already have a child support order.

After completing the forms

- Make three (3) copies of each completed form.
- Take the originals and three (3) copies to Clerk of Common Pleas Court.
- Call ahead to the Court to find out what filing fee is required. If you are filing a Affidavit of Indigency, you do not need to take the filing fee with you today.
- If you filled out any of the optional forms, be sure to include the entry forms which are attached to each.

After forms are filed

- Clerk will send you notice of any court dates. Attend all of these court dates.
- If you move, call the Clerk with your new address.

Definitions of Legal Terms in the “Divorce Packets”

- affidavit - a written statement made under oath before a notary public.
- defendant - the person a lawsuit is filed against.
- ex parte - without the other party present. Ex parte orders are issued by the court before the other side has a chance to respond.
- gross neglect of duty - your spouse has moved out and abandoned your family.
- incompatibility - you and your spouse don't get along.
- indigency - household income is low enough that you probably won't have to pay court fees to file your paperwork.
- IV-D application - application for help from the Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA). Should be taken to the CSEA in your county. Don't file this in court.
- O.R.C.P 4.4(A)(2) - a court rule that allows you to serve your divorce complaint on your spouse by having the clerk of courts post it at the court house. You can only serve your spouse this way if you have no idea where s/he lives and do not have any way to find out. You have to file an affidavit to ask the court to serve your spouse this way.
- parental affidavit - (UCCJEA) is a form required in every court case involving the custody of children. It explains to the court where the children have lived and who has taken care of them before the case came to court.
- personal property - personal possessions, for example: furniture, appliances, and tools. Vehicles are also considered personal property, even if more than one person's name is on the title.
- plaintiff - the person filing the lawsuit.
- real property - land or a home and the land it sits on. Cars, mobile homes taxed separately from the land, and personal possessions are NOT real property.
- service - a court process to notify your spouse that you filed for divorce.
- temporary orders - orders issued by the court that are in effect only while the case is still before the court. If the case is dismissed or the court issues a final order, the temporary orders are no longer good. Common temporary orders in divorce cases include custody, child and spousal support, who gets to stay in the family home or use the family car, and who has to pay certain bills.

APPLICATION FOR CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES
NON-PUBLIC ASSISTANCE APPLICANT

IMPORTANT: If you are receiving ADC or Medicaid, do not complete this application, because you became eligible for child support services when you became eligible to receive ADC or Medicaid.

I the undersigned, _____ request Child Support Services from the _____ County Child Support Enforcement Agency. I understand and agree to the following conditions:

- A. I am a resident of the County in which services are requested.
- B. Recipients of child support services shall cooperate to the best of their ability with the CSEA. (See attached rights and responsibility information).

The Child Support Enforcement Agency can assist you in providing the following services:

1. Location of Absent Parents.

The agency can assist in finding where an absent parent is currently living, in what city, town or state. The applicant can request "Location Services Only", if the sole need is to find the whereabouts of the absent parent.

2. Establishment or Modification of Child Support and Medical Support

The CSEA can assist you to obtain an order for support if you are separated, have been deserted or need to establish paternity (fatherhood). The CSEA can also assist you in changing the amount of support orders (modification), and to establish a medical support order.

3. Enforcement of Existing Orders.

The CSEA can help you collect current and back child support.

4. Federal and State Income Tax Refund Offset Submittals for the Collection of Child Support Arrearages.

The agency can assist in collecting back support (arrears) by intercepting a non-payor's federal and state income tax refunds on some cases.

5. Withholding of Wages and Unearned Income for the Payment of Court Ordered Support.

The agency can help you get payroll deductions for current and back child support and can intercept unemployment compensation to collect child support.

6. Establishment of Paternity.

The agency can obtain an order for the establishment of paternity (fatherhood), if you were not married to the father of the child. An absent parent may request paternity services.

7. Collection and Disbursement of Payments.

The CSEA can collect the child support for you, and send you a check for the amount of the payments received. Back support collected will be paid to you until all of the back support you are owed is paid.

If you received ADC in the past and support was assigned to the state, back support collected will be paid to the state after you receive back support owed to you.

8. Interstate Collection of Child Support.

The agency can assist you in collecting support if the payor is living in another state or in some foreign countries.

C. The only fee you can be charged for services is a one dollar application fee. Some counties pay this fee for the applicants.

D. In providing IV-D services, the CSEA and any of its contracted agents (e.g., prosecutors, attorneys, hearing officers, etc.) represent the best interest of the children of the state of Ohio and do not represent any IV-D recipient or the IV-D recipient's personal interest.
