PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program is designed to prepare volunteer attorneys who provide critical representation to low-income clients at the Clean Slate Clinics offered by the Legal Aid Society of Columbus (LASC) and Southeastern Ohio Legal Services (SEOLS). Attorneys will learn how to screen clients for record-sealing eligibility and how to complete basic pro se forms. The CLE will also address the eligibility requirements and application process for Certificates of Qualification for Employment—a relatively new tool available to individuals encountering the collateral sanctions of their involvement in the criminal justice system.

A Clean Slate Pro Bono Clinic will immediately follow in the afternoon after the CLE. The CLE is free for any attorney who agrees to volunteer at the afternoon Clean Slate Clinic or at other SEOLS sponsored clinics.
