

Use this Packet if you need to serve the other party by Posting and Mail.

What is posting: If you (1) do not know where the other party lives, (2) have made reasonable efforts to find a current address for the other party but cannot find them, and (3) are filing with a poverty affidavit, you can serve the other party by posting instead of publication. You do not have to pay for posting.

You must have a last known address for the other party, even if you know they are no longer living there.

Once you turn in the forms below to the Clerk, they will mail the documents to the other party's last known address and will hang the Complaint or Motion in the courthouse and two other public places in the county.

NOTE: This does NOT apply to Civil Protection Order Proceedings

Request for Service	Asks the Court to serve the other party by Posting and ordinary mail service at the last known address. List the other party's last known address on the first page, even if you know the other party no longer lives there.
Affidavit for Service	Tells the Court that you have tried to find a current address for the other party but do not know where they live so you need to serve them by Posting.
Entry	Once you file your Request and Affidavit, provide this form to the Clerk or the Judge for signature.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- All forms must either be typed or printed in ink. You must fill out the forms before taking them to the court. The Court staff will not help you complete the forms.
- Once you have completed the main packet and these added forms, you will take all the forms (and copies) to the Clerk's office for filing.
